August 7th Attack Survivor Meets Peace Builders Kids Club

On Friday, March 23, the August 7th Memorial hosted the Riara Primary School to inaugurate the Peace Builders Kids Club at their school. The Memorial is a project commemorating the victims of the August 7, 1998, terrorist attack on the U.S. Embassy in Nairobi, a majority of whom were Kenyans. The Peace Builders Kids Club was started by the Memorial to teach children about conflict resolution and to prevent another attack like August 7th. During the event, Joash Okindo, a survivor of the August 7th attack, met the primary school children and shared his story.
